Lisbon, March 21.

THE King has cauſed an Ordonnance to be publiſhed, renewing the former Prohibition againſt ſending Gold, either in Bars or Specie, out of this Kingdom, and for inflicting ſevere Puniſhments on thoſe who ſhall for the future be found guilty of it. His Majeſty has ſettled the Route that the Infante Anne-Marie-Francoiſe, future Spouſe to the Archduke Joſeph, is to take to Germany, by which it appears, ſhe is to go by Land through Spain, &c. and ſo on to Vienna.

Baſtia, March 26. We are informed, that ſince the French Troops evacuated the Poſts in the interior Parts of this Iſland, ſome Miſunderſtandings have happened amongſt the Chiefs of the Malecontents, on Account of the great Power and Authority conferred on M. Gaffori; and that four of the Pieves not only refuſed ſending Deputies to the laſt general Aſſembly, but have even entred into a Negociation with the Marqueſs Grimaldi, who has thereupon ſent Circular Letters to the other Communities, exhorting them to follow their Example; and requeſting them, at the ſame Time, to ſend Deputies hither, in order to accommodate their Diſputes with the Republick, from whom, he alledges, he has received full Powers to give them all reaſonable Satisfaction; but we do not find that any of them ſeem inclined to comply therewith; on the contrary, they have ſince attended the Summons of M. Gaffori to a general Aſſembly, where the Reſolutions taken laſt Aſſembly, for raiſing, upon each Pieve, a Sum ſufficient to defray the Expence of a Body of Troops for their mutual Defence, under the Name of the Confederate Army, were unanimouſly agreed to.

Petersbourg, April 4. We hear by Letters from Moſcow, that the Great Chancellor Count Beſtucheff is entirely recovered from the Fatigue of his Journey, and has taken upon him the Management of the Affairs of his Department. The ſame Letters add, that her Imperial Majeſty is determined to form a conſiderable Camp this Summer, and that the General, who is to have the Command of it, will ſoon be named. They write from the Ukraine, that the Settlement which is eſtabliſhing in that Country, called New Servia, encreaſes very faſt, Numbers of Foreigners coming there continually to ſettle and carry on their reſpective Employments; that the Town of Archangelogorod, which lies in the Centre of it, is for the moſt Part built; and that they have already begun to fortify the ſame againſt the Inſults of the Tartars.

Florence, April 6. On Monday laſt Prince San Severino arrived here from Naples on his Way to England, with the Character of Envoy Extraordinary from his Sicilian Majeſty. He propoſes to ſet out for Bologna next Sunday, and to proceed from thence by the Way of Parma, Turin, and Paris, and to be in England in about two Months. By the laſt Letters from Corſica there is Advice, that the Tranſports were arrived from Toulon, and that the Embarkation of the French Troops was to begin as laſt Sunday.

Stockholm, April 10. The Queen is relapſed, and obliged to keep her Chamber, which greatly alarms the King and the whole Court; and the Baron de Fuchs, Governor of this City, is ſo extremely ill, that his Phyſicians have very little Hopes of his Recovery.

Vienna, April 11. Beſides the Camps that are to be formed this Summer in Moravia and Bohemia, there is alſo to be one in the Neighbourhood of Presbourg, but their Imperial Majeſties have not as yet declared who is to have the Command of it. The Palace of the late Prince Eugene is actually fitting up for the Archduke Joſeph; and as they are alſo forming his Houſhold, 'tis expected his intended Marriage with the Infanta of Portugal will ſoon be declared at Court. The Empreſs Queen of Hungary has given Orders for training up the Militia in her Hereditary Countries, after the Manner of the French, ſo that for the future there will be a Body of 120000 Men in thoſe Countries always ready to bear Arms.

The King, accompanied by Prince Ferdinand of Brunſwick, and a numerous Retinue of General Officers, came here on Monday laſt from Potzdam; and after giving ſome Audiences at the Palace, and dining with the Queen Mother, his Majeſty returned again to Potzdam. They write from Prentzlow, that on the 5th Inſtant they had a moſt violent Storm of Wind, accompanied with Hail, Rain, and moſt violent Claps of Thunder and Lightning, which greatly alarmed the Inhabitants, who however did not receive ſo much Damage from it as was expected.
